Guest Conductors

Dr. Harold Levine has lead a varied career as violist, conductor, composer, and teacher. An Interlochen Arts Academy graduate, his degrees include a Bachelor of Science from Ball State University, Master of Music from the University of Cincinnati, and Doctor of Music Arts from Rutgers University. After spending four seasons with the Louisville Orchestra, Dr. Levin served on the faculty at the University of Nebraska, where he taught viola and conducted the Lincoln Youth Symphony Orchestra. He has since served as Viola Professor and Director of Orchestras at Memphis State, Western Illinois, and Bucknell Universities. Also a commissioned and published composer, Dr. Levin’s music for both small and large ensembles has been recorded and performed across the United States. He has performed as violist and conducted at summer festivals in Colorado, Michigan, Tennessee, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Vermont, and Massachusetts. Harold Levin studied viola with Dave Holland, Robert Slaughter, Raymond Stilwell, Donald McInnes, and Michael Tree; and composition with Ernesto Pellegrini, Joel Hoffman, and Charles Wuorinen. During the 2003-2004 school year he served as Visiting Professor at West Virginia University. He is currently on the faculty of Manhattan College in New York City and the Morristown-Beard School in New Jersey. Dr. Levin is a member of the New Jersey-based Herrick Ensemble, and in the summers serves as Instructor of Viola and Chamber Music at the Interlochen Center for the Arts.

Mr. Jeffrey Welcher received his Bachelor of Music Education degree from the Crane School of Music at Potsdam College in Potsdam, N.Y., and his Master of Music Education from West Chester State University in West Chester, Pa. He is currently Vocal Music Director at Oneida High School in Oneida, N.Y. where he conducts Concert Choir, Freshmen Chorus, Vocal Jazz Ensemble and Freshmen Jazz Lab.

Mr. Welcher has been involved with the New York State School Music Association Conference Vocal Jazz Ensemble as chairman and is one of a small number of teachers certified for Vocal Jazz Adjudication in New York State. He has done guest conducting and adjudicating for All-County, Regional and All-State Choirs and Vocal Jazz Ensembles throughout the Northeast.

Mr. Welcher is an active member on ACDA, serving as Eastern Division Repertoire and Standards Committee Chairman for Jazz Ensembles. He is also a member of IAJE and the 2003 recipient of the Syracuse Symphony Musicians Award for Outstanding Choral Director.

As a performer, Mr. Welcher is a member of the Syracuse Vocal Ensemble, an active church soloist/organist and jazz vocalist/pianist.

Dr. Adam F. Brennan has been Director of Bands and Professor of Percussion Studies at Mansfield University since 1995. Currently, he is serving as Chair of the Music Department and maintains his duties as Director of Bands. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in music education and a Master of Arts degree in composition from Western Illinois University. He earned his Doctor of Music Arts degree in instrumental conducting from the University of Oklahoma.

The Mansfield University Concert Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Dr. Adam F. Brennan, has been hailed as an outstanding performing ensemble, richly sensitive, musically compelling, and deeply passionate in their interpretation of cutting edge wind and percussion repertoire. The ensemble consists of 49 auditioned performers from the MU music department and university. This group records and performs annually on campus and throughout the eastern region on tours and at conventions and special events. The Mansfield University Bands are recorded on Strike Up the Bands!, This Could Be the Start of Something Big, and their most recently released compact disc Music From the Endless Mountains. If you would like to purchase a compact disc of the MU bands, call (570) 662-4710.

Dr. Brennan’s responsibilities include administrating the band program and conducting the Concert Wind Ensemble, the school’s top wind and percussion ensemble. Dr. Brennan also directs the Marching band, The Pride of Pennsylvania!, where he writes all musical arrangements and is responsible for each season’s drill design. In addition to these ensembles, he teaches courses in percussion techniques and instrumental conducting to both undergraduate and graduate students and teaches courses related to instrumental conducting. Dr. Brennan is also the percussion ensemble arranger and pit ensemble consultant for the World Champion Empire Statesmen Drum and Bugle Corps. Following this year as Interim Department Chair, Dr. Brennan will assume the responsibilities as chair for the next two years. He will maintain his role as Director of Bands we well.

From 1989-1995, Dr. Brennan was Associate Director of Bands and Percussion at Western Illinois University. Prior to this, he served as Director of Bands at Kankakee Valley High School in Wheatfield, IN and was the percussion caption head and writer for the Northmen Drum and Bugles Corps in Green Bay WIS. An active composer and clinician with over 100 arrangements and compositions and over 150 guest conducting and clinical engagements, Dr. Brennan travels extensively, making guest appearances at festivals throughout the United States.

He has recorded regularly as a conductor and percussionist and can be heard on Strike Up the Bands and This Could be the Start of Something Big! (produced by Mark Records), Twilight Offering Music, Fantasy Variations and the newest release by the MU Bands entitled Music from the Endless Mountains.

Dr. Brennan is the President of the Pennsylvania Collegiate Bandmaster’s Association. His professional memberships include the College Band Director’s National Association, the Music Educator’s National Conference and the Pennsylvania Music Educator’s Association, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia National Music Fraternity, Tau Beta Sigma and Kappa Kappa Psi Band Fraternities (honorary member), and the Autism Society of America. He was awarded the prestigious Orpheus Award from Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia through education, performance, creativity and research. In 2003, Epsilon Iota, the local chapter of Kappa Kappas Psi National Band Fraternity, presented him with the Bertram Francis Memorial Award for Outstanding Contributions to MU Bands. Dr. Brennan resides in Wellsboro, Pennsylvania with his wife Katie, and three children, Max, Ian, and Maggie.

Accompanist Mr. Michael E. Copps is a graduate of the Crane School of Music at Potsdam State University. He received his Bachelor of Music degree while studying Piano and Voice. Graduate work followed at the Saratoga - Potsdam Choral Institute where Mr. Copps was awarded a full assistantship in piano accompanying.

Mr. Copps has an extensive background in piano accompanying, including fifteen years playing for the New York All-State Choirs. He served as pianist for the 1996 ACDA Senior Honors Choir in Philadelphia and the 2004 ACDA Junior High Honors Choir in Boston. Locally, Mr. Copps accompanies the Elementary, Junior, and Senior High choirs at the Oswego and Onondaga All-County festivals. He has worked with the Liverpool Community Chorus, the Oswego County Children’s Chorus, Syracuse Opera Company, the Syracuse Children’s Choir, and has been the pianist and Musical Director for Theater 90, and the Wits End Players.

In the Spring of 1998, Mr. Copps was asked to be the guest conductor for the Onondaga Elementary All-Chorus. He also guest conducted the 2003 Oswego Elementary All-County Chorus.

Mr. Copps is in his eleventh year as Lower School Vocal Music Teacher and Choral Accompanist at Manlius Pebble Hill School. He has served for ten years as the director of Kinder Stock and Fun Stock. (MPH’s summer musical theater programs for grades K-6)

Mr. Copps currently is a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, M.E.N.C., N.Y.S.S.M.A., and A.C.D.A. He is also a board member for the Onondaga County Music Educators Association. Mr. Coops is the organist and accompanist for the Eastwood Baptist Church in Syracuse. Born and raised in Oswego, he and his wife Sue now live in East Syracuse.
